Northern Arizona University College Panhellenic Council does not categorically deny membership to an individual based on race, color, religion, age, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military or veteran status, the presence of a disability, genetic information, familial status, political affiliation, or participation in protected activities (discrimination based on sex is allowed through Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972).

Article XIV. Other Panhellenic Policies

- A. Statement on Alcohol
 - a. The College Panhellenic Council supports all federal laws, state laws, and Northern Arizona University policies regarding alcohol. The College Panhellenic Council respects and supports each chapter's ability to uphold its alcohol policy. The College Panhellenic Council strongly encourages chapters to utilize their bylaws and chapter relations or standards committees when dealing with alcohol-related issues. Alcohol-related issues include but are not limited to, those issues involving underage drinking, contributing to underage drinking, behavior that is unbecoming of the Fraternity and Sorority Life community, and promoting the use of alcohol. The College Panhellenic Council encourages all chapters to participate in continual alcohol education to avoid possible alcohol-related issues. The College Panhellenic Council will support appropriate disciplinary actions that occur as a result of alcohol-related issues.

- b. The consumption of alcohol before or while attending philanthropy events is prohibited. If a member is suspected of attending a philanthropy event while under the influence of alcohol, it is the responsibility of that individual's chapter to handle the incident internally.
- c. The promotion or sale of alcohol at philanthropy events is prohibited. A chapter that holds a philanthropy event where alcohol is sold, either to members, dates, or participants under the legal age or over 21 years of age, will be subject to consequences at the discretion of the Vice President of Peer Accountability and the Peer Accountability Board.
- d. All CPC events with alcohol provided by a third-party vendor to NAU students are required to provide transportation for those in attendance to and from the event from the NAU campus.

B. Irresponsible Community Behavior

- a. Any behavior, including that of a new, active, or Alumnae member, which is associated with a chapter or the Fraternity and Sorority Life system that is damaging to the overall reputation and outward appearance of the Fraternity and Sorority Life community, can and will be held accountable by the College Panhellenic Council through the Judicial Board. These damages can occur during a chapter's function, intramural activity, Tequila Sunrise, parties involving substances, or other campus or local events where the member is a representative of the Fraternity and Sorority Life Community. Possible examples of irresponsible behavior may include, but are not limited to, inappropriate display at a formal date; alcohol-induced vomiting in public, or any behavior that would be considered disgraceful to each chapter's purpose.

C. Apparel

- a. Any apparel that reveals chapter affiliation or uniform or matching outfits alluding to chapter affiliation at alcohol-related events can and will be held accountable by the College Panhellenic Council through the Peer Accountability Board

D. Addressing the Media

- a. The chapter President of each member organization shall serve as the sole representative to the media for each specific chapter. However, prior consultation must be held with the CPC President, Advisors, and National Offices.

E. Social Media Policy

- a. As a chapter of the College Panhellenic Council community at Northern Arizona University, you represent not just yourself but all of the members who are a part of Sorority life. With this in mind, the College Panhellenic Council has established the following standards that chapters are expected to uphold on all social media outlets, including but not limited to Twitter, Facebook, Snapchat, Instagram, TikTok, GreekRank, and any anonymous outlets such as YikYak. This includes any accounts affiliated with or related to a specific chapter.
- b. Chapters and members who fail or refuse to comply with this policy will be subjected to disciplinary action by the Northern Arizona University College Panhellenic Peer Accountability Board. This policy will not interfere with any chapter policy that is already in place at the local, national, or international level.
- c. It is expected that all photos, videos, comments, captions, emoticons, and posts depicting, posted by, or identifying the chapter's social media outlets are a good representation* of our College Panhellenic Council community.

- d. All information on social media outlets must be in line with the values expressed in the Panhellenic Creed. Chapters will not be posted on media sites that are a poor representation of our community, including but not limited to:
 - i. any photos involving alcohol or the appearance of intoxication
 - ii. any illegal acts including those related to drugs and vandalism
 - iii. cruel and offensive sexual acts
 - iv. full or partial nudity
- e. Pictures and posts regarding alcohol must be in line with federal, state, and local regulations. For those who are of legal age to consume alcohol, 21 years old in the United States or the country in which they are present, a one-serving rule for any post or picture will be the standard.
- f. Chapters must refrain from participating in groups that are a poor representation* of our community including, but not limited to titles or content that:
 - i. degrading towards the fraternity/sorority brand and/or image
 - ii. racially, ethnically, or sexually derogatory
 - iii. advocates condone or reveal participation in any illegal activity.
 - iv. disorderly conduct towards another College Panhellenic Council chapter.
 - v. disorderly conduct towards other members of the NAU community.

*The terms “good representation” and “poor representation” will be up to the discretion of the Coordinator of Fraternity and Sorority Life, the graduate assistant(s), and the Vice President of Peer Accountability.

F. Philanthropic Events

- a. Limitations
 - i. All philanthropic events held by Chapters of the council shall be limited to three days per semester. Percentage nights are not included in the three-day limit if not consecutive or related to a multiple-day event, such as Sweetheart competitions. The chapter will be required to make these days mainly preside over non-scholarly times to ensure academic success is the priority of sorority life.
- b. Scheduling
 - i. No two organizations can hold individual chapter philanthropy events on the same days. Chapters will submit preferences for dates to the College Panhellenic Council and Panhellenic advisors. Dates will be assigned on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- c. Behavior
 - i. The College Panhellenic Council does not support any unsportsmanlike or crude behavior about participation in philanthropic events and competitions. Possible examples of this include, but are not limited to, purposeful harm to a Panhellenic member during sport-related competitions; insensitive or inappropriate signage, and any other activity or performance that does not display the organization in a positive light (per chapter discretion). The College Panhellenic Council respects and supports each chapter's ability to uphold these standards. The College Panhellenic Council strongly encourages chapters to utilize their bylaws and chapter relations or standards committees when dealing with philanthropic behavior-related issues.

- d. Other philanthropy bylaws and restrictions
 - i. Chapters may hold one (1) competition-based philanthropy week per calendar year, up to three (3) consecutive days.
 - ii. Chapters may hold individual philanthropy events that may not be point-based regarding any philanthropic competition or Sweetheart competition.
 - 1. These individual philanthropy events cannot be consecutive. An individual event must take place 24 hours after the previous event.
 - iii. Any chapter found to be encouraging, supporting, or holding events/engaging in behavior that is deemed inappropriate, unsportsmanlike, or displays (either or both) any chapter or the council in a negative light is subject to the following:
 - 1. On the first occurrence, the chapter at fault will receive a written warning from the council advising the chapter of further consequences and/or sanctions if said behavior does not cease.
 - 2. On the second occurrence, a meeting between the Vice President of Peer Accountability and the President of the chapter at fault must occur.
 - 3. On the third occurrence, the chapter at fault is subject to a judicial hearing.

Article XV. Parliamentary Authority

- A. Parliamentary procedure shall take place following the updated 2022 bylaws for NAU Panhellenic when voting takes place.

Article XVI. Amendment of Bylaws

- A. These bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the Northern Arizona University College Panhellenic Council by a two-thirds vote, provided that the proposed amendment has been announced and submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting, allowing an opportunity for chapter input.

Article XVII. Dissolution

- A. This College Panhellenic Council shall be dissolved when only one regular member exists at Northern Arizona University. In the event of the dissolution, none of the assets of the College Panhellenic Council shall be distributed to any members of the College Panhellenic Council, but after payment of all debts, its assets shall be given to NPC unless otherwise required by state law.
